Living demands an involvement, one in which we act and react, combine initiative, vitality, and understanding into a happiness which fills the lives of us all.

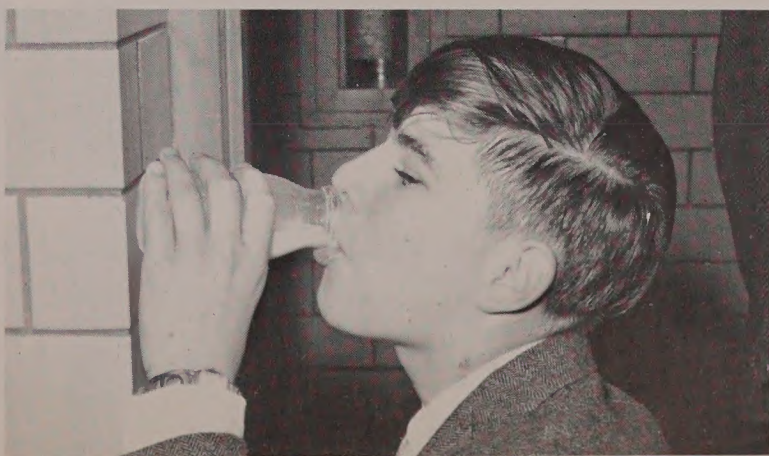

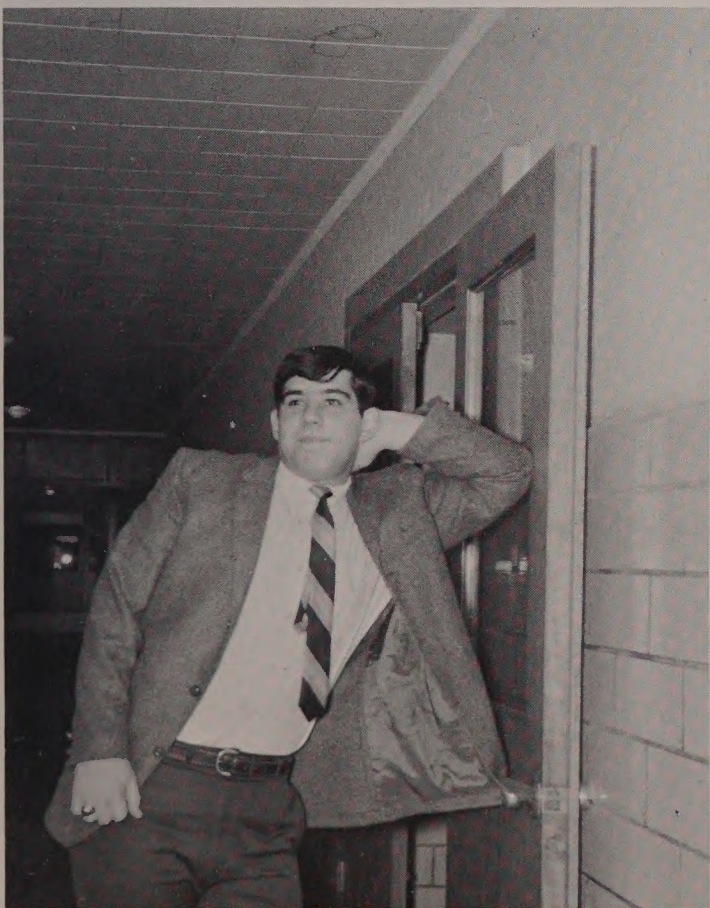

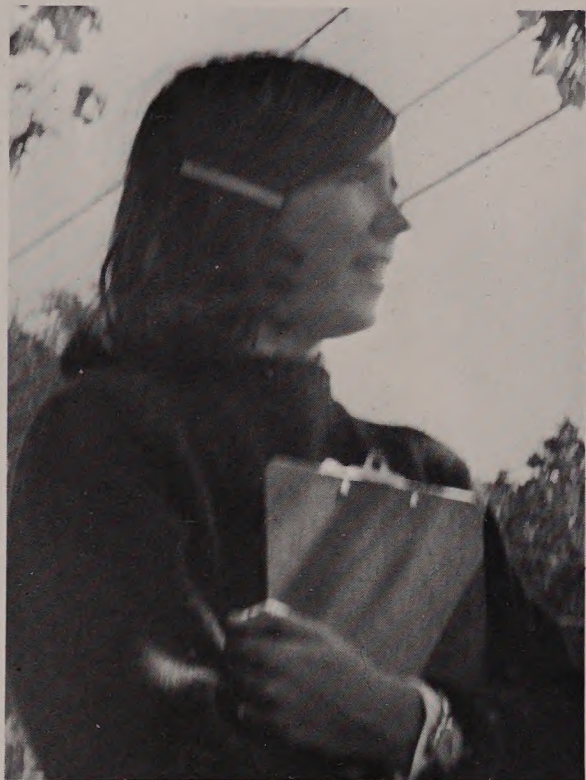

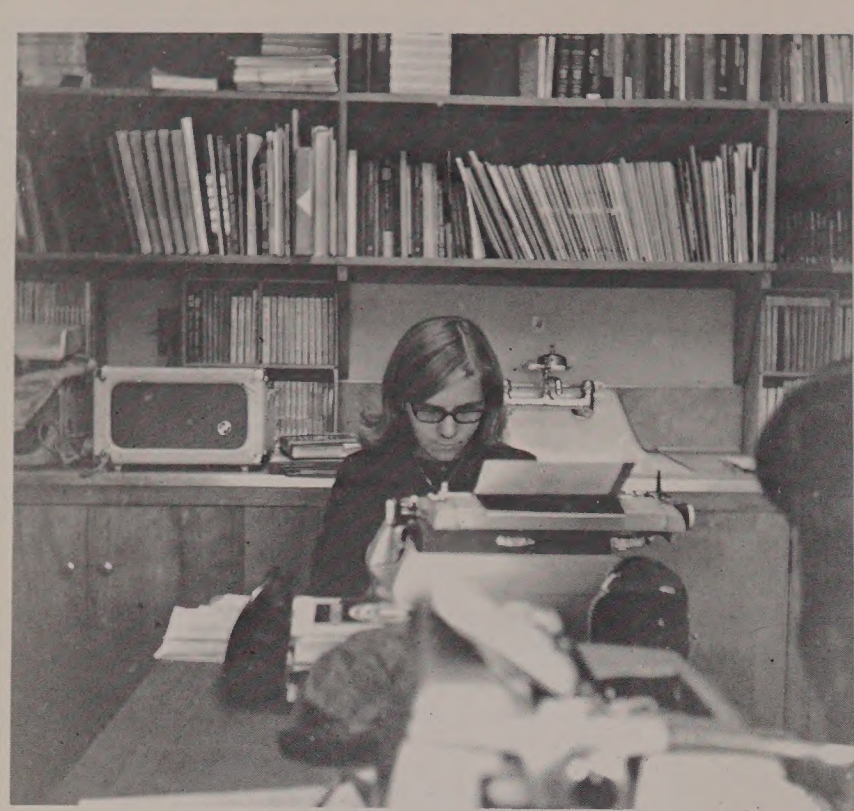

A Spontaneous expression can reveal the wonders of youth . . . words need not be spoken . . .

A treasured dream may be left unsaid...

Dedication

Since we, the class of 1968, have been freshmen, we've heard about how great a person Mr. Silva, better known as "Unc", is. As we moved up through the ranks, we began to realize that he was a major figure in the school, both in Administration and as a friend to us. Mr. Silva, in his position as Vice-Principal, must not only discipline us, as he often does, but must also guide us and gain our respect. We feel that he has accomplished all of this and more. We would now like to show appreciation and gratitude by dedicating our memories of four years to him. Thanks, Unc!!!

Foreword

As we, the members of the class of 1968, conclude our stay at Joseph Case High School, we experience a new consciousness of time. The times are changing and we are changing with them, yet our yesterydays follow us; they constitute our life and they give character, force, and meaning to our present deeds. High school is a time of apprehension, coupled with a new-found freedom. There develops a social responsibility through interaction with others found in a similar situation. As we take greater steps toward our goal of graduation, we obtain valuable experiences. We, the class of 1968, dedicate ourselves to a peaceful and rewarding future—a future which we will help to preserve.

What? No last wish?

Our Editor

We'll get that darn bell this time!

Rough night!

Naw, I ain't no lover.

Grab it quick!

Got it!

Study Hall

Nice class, isn't it.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Silva, better known as Uncle Ed—secretly to underclassmen, but openly to Seniors—is not the run-of-the-mill Vice-Principal. He commands respect, but he is also always willing to be a friend and confidant. His service to the school, but most of all his invaluable service to all of us by being available when we need him most—or least—has naturally led him to be one of the men at Case we hold most in our esteem. To him we have dedicated our Chief, but also a promise that we will try to live up to all he stands for.

MR. EDWARD R. SILVA

DONALD F. McCAFFREY

Not only is Mr. McCaffrey the chief cook and bottle washer who presides over our school department, but he is a Swansea resident, and most of all, a friend. This is the man upon whose shoulders lie the many and various problems of Swansea and, all too often, the criticism.

We don't get to know Mr. McCaffrey too well during our years at Case, but we always know he is behind the door marked "Administration" and he is the man who keeps things running smoothly.

Mr. Couture is also a Swansea resident and friend, and plays an important role in the Swansea School Department. He is in charge of maintenance and is Mr. McCaffrey's right hand man. His specific duties include managing our complex bus schedules and maintenance of the various schools. Mr. Couture and Mr. McCaffrey share the responsibilities and decisions and serve Swansea together.

Spanish Club

Three of the most prominent clubs of the school are the French club, the Spanish club and the Junior Classical League, whose total membership includes sixty sophomores juniors and seniors. Each club strives to be both entertaining and educational, and seeks in its own way to broaden the students' outlook through close examination of French, Spanish and Roman art and history.

Mr. Williston took over the reins as head football coach this year, and guided the Cardinals to a Narry League Championship and the 49-er's trophy. Although starting off slow this season, and having numerous injuries, the Cards came into their own and finished unbeaten in the Narry League, defeating Somerset on Thanksgiving Day 22-8. Tri-captains Tom Blakey, Paul Thibault, and Wayne Chace led their team respectably with the help of Seniors Doug Roberts, Tom Holden, Bruce Westcott, Joe Estrella, Gary Cole, and Steve Cross. Underclassmen Norm Messier, Russ Dawe, Bob Jansen, David Provost, Vincent Anarumo and many others made this season one of the best Case has ever had.

Basketball 67-68

The tallest team in the Narry and the best bench enabled the Cardinals to capture a co-championship this year with a 13-1 record and 19-1 overall, their only defeat against Holy Family. Co-captains George Jenkinson and Jeff Kirkman led the Cardinals to an outstanding season and a tech-tourney berth. Center, Tom Austin, Seniors, Fran Kelly and Wayne Chace, and Paul Connors, Chris Roberts, and Brian Leonardo all helped Coach Gordon gain the Narry Championship.

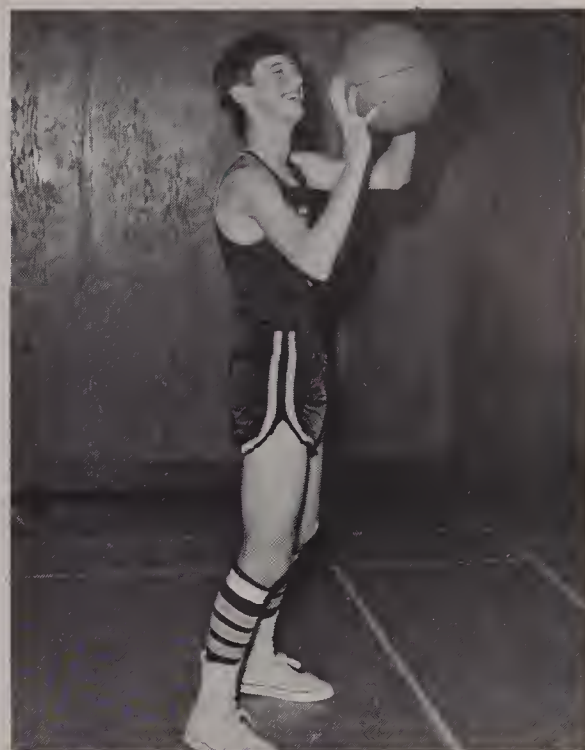

The J.V. team, under Coach Carey, continued its winning ways in "68", finishing second and keeping hopes high for the next year's Case Cardinals.
